City of Union Names Donna Wahoff City Clerk

The City of Union has named Donna Wahoff as the City Clerk.

Wahoff succeeds Interim City Clerk/Treasurer Melissa Hinkle, who has been promoted to a new position.

Wahoff will serve the city in a variety of capacities, including record keeping, scheduling, and other projects as assigned.

Wahoff brings extensive experience to the position. She was the Executive Assistant to the Provost for Union Institute & University in Cincinnati, where she performed a variety of administrative functions related to the Provost's office. She retired from the University of Cincinnati, where she worked most recently in the Office of General Counsel. While at UC, Wahoff also held administrative positions in the Office of the Senior VP for Planning, Finance and Community; the Office of the VP of Finance and as the administrative coordinator for enrollment management.

Wahoff received an Associate of Applied Business from the University of Cincinnati Raymond Walters College, where she was awarded outstanding student honors.

Wahoff, and her husband Rick, reside in Burlington.
