City of Union Announces Vendors for the Celebrate America Event

The City of Union has announced the following vendors who will attend the Union Celebrates America event on June 29.

The Union Celebrates America event will be held at the DelMonde Building (Old Union Firehouse) located at 10087 Old Union Road, starting at approximately 7:15 p.m.

The street party event will begin following the conclusion of the Union Celebrates America parade, set for 7 p.m. on US Highway 42, between Braxton Road and Mt. Zion.

The following food trucks will be attending the 2018 event:

Braxton Brewing-providing a variety of locally brewed craft beers (21 and up)

Boone County Distilling-providing bourbon and bourbon based beverages (21 and up)

Kona Ice-Iced flavored drinks and beverages

U Lucky Dawg-gourmet hot dogs with unique toppings and premium local sausages

Kabobske Mediterranean-wraps and salads with Mediterranean flair

SugarSnap! Sweet Treats-gourmet cupcakes and cheesecakes on a stick

Packhouse Meats-meatballs and sauces served many ways

Sweets & Meats BBQ-traditional barbeque flair and street fair

DR Concessions-Traditional street fair food, including cotton candy, funnel cakes and more

Johnson's Country Hams-traditional ham sandwiches, homemade beans and cold drinks

Lets Glow Crazy-A fun vendor of various led and lighted toys for young and young at heart

Each food truck is associated with the Cincinnati Food Truck Association, and more information, including menus and pricing for each vendor is available through their website at www.cincinnati-foodtruckassociation.org
